John Ellison,Jr.
vs. John Semple's
Admr.-Jos.McClain
1828

Witness depositions taken before Joseph Darlinton, Master Commissioner of Court pursuant to agreement dated July 28, 1828. (all summoned)==Benjamin Bowman of lawful age as witness on behalf of Complainant was duly sworn = Question by Complainant's Counsel==Do you know what amount you have received of Joseph McClain, Admr. of Estate of John Semple, Dec'd. on account of said deceased?
Answer==I cannot now state with any certainty Semple owed me for six or seven months boarding for himself and his apprentice at $2.00 per week for each of them - for about a barrel of whisky- but which I cannot state without seeing my books - and for hauling for Semple of between $30. and $40. --Semple had an amount against me and on settlement with McClain, Semple's Admr. paid me the balance, but what that was I am not now able to say--
Question by same==Did any person except Connor and Semple work in the yard erected in Manchester?
Answer== No, I believe no others worked as hands in the yard.
Question by same==Do you know whether any person but Semple and Holmes worked together in the old tanyard?
Answer==I have seen Semple and Holmes together in the old yard, but how they worked I cannot state of my own knowledge.
Question by same==Did you move the Bark Mill from the old yard to the new one?
Answer== I did not, but my boys hauled several loads from the old to the new yard, but I am not able to state whether they hauled the Bark Mill or not.
Question by same==Did Semple employ you to do the hauling from the old to the new Tan Yard?
Answer== Yes he did, and further deponant saith not. Signed by Benjamin Bowman.
Gabriel D. Darlinton of full age produced as Witness for Complainant- was duly sworn = Question by Complainant's Counsel== Will not two hands be sufficient to work a yard stocked with two thousand dollars?
Answer== it would depend altogether on the quantity of sole or upper leather in the yard-but my impression at present is that two hands would not be sufficient.

Question by same==What would it cost for oil and lamblack for a yard per year, stocked with two thousand dollars?
Answer==I cannot state the amount-it would depend on the proportion of sole leather in the yard- I employ seventeen or eighteen vats and I have made use of something more than a barrel of oil a year upon an average-the first three barrels of oil I purchased cost me between $15 and $18 each, and further this deponent saith not.
Signed G.D. Darlinton.
Israel Donalson of full age produced as witness for Defendant - Defendant declined taking Donalson's deposition.
Signed by Joseph Darlinton, Master Commissioner in Chancery on August 1, 1828 certifying these depositions were taken before him in Clerk's Office, West Union.

Ellison vs. Semple's Admr. 1828

In above case I give the Complainant leave to take deposition of John Campton, or any other person, any time or place, either in this State or out, so that it be done before competent authority, and require officers certificate,etc. Signed D.P.Wilkins, Atty. for Deft. on September 22, 1828.

McClain vs. Ellison Filed 31 Oct. 1827

Amended answer of Joseph McClain, Admr. of John Stemple, Dec'd. defendant to Bill of Complaint filed in Adams County Court of Common Pleas by John Ellison, JR. complainant = this respondant by leave of Court obtained amendment and addition to his answer already filed in the case == Answer==from frequent conversation said decedant during his lifetime had with this respondant that no partnership existed between Complainant and Decedant-upon death of decedant was more confirmed in this opinion--First, applying to Col. John Means to administer, and afterwards expressing disposition himself to become the administrator- Complainant never did claim the priviledge until sometime after letters of administration had been granted- Had respondant been satisfied that a partnership existed he would not have interferred with Complainant's rights, or prevented him from taking possession of the property to which as surviving partner he was entitled--Respondant insists that even if Complainant was a partner and at time of death he had been guilty of gross

negligence in not asserting his rights as such, and ought not now be permitted to demand compensation for faithfully disposing property belonging to estate of the intestate -- this respondant has heard the intestate say in his lifetime that at time Complainant delivered possession of the Boyd TanYard it was contemplated by the parties that a partnership be formed, but after decedant examined stock and materials furnished by Complainant they were so inferior in value, he resolved not to enter into partnership --another reason decedant assigned for the course was the embarrassment the Complainant had enduced him to give so many orders for leather and tannery would be exhaused in paying debts if permitted to control of a partner--Decedent stated it was his intention to keep account of materials received from Complainant-complete the process of tanning the hides in the vats, sell the leather and charge Complainant with expense and credit with proceeds--believing decedent's representation was true, respondant requested Complainant to exhibit his account to receive settlement- Complainant always refused to exhibit account--Respondant denies Complainant furnished stock to amount stated in bill, believes Complainant's book account and share of improvements made on lots purchased from Donalson will amount to greater sum than Complainant furnished - respondant believes a portion of the six vats claimed by Complainant was marked leather or leather tanned and of far inferior value than represented- Respondant states Decedent departed this life on 5th day of March in the year 1822 - letters of Administration granted to respondant on 17 April same year - property appraised 24 May next and residue consisting of leather then in process of tanning about 31 day October in same year. = Decedent's personal property amounting to $736.83¼=appraisement Exhibit B-believed he marked those belonging to partnership, if such existed--Denies he has paid one cent to creditors= Respondant admits on October 31, 1822 at second sale Complainant came very much intoxicated and in abrupt manner forbid persons present to purchase any article offered for sale stating it was his property, but did not exhibit proof of title-- Respondant denies any illegal disposition of property - the whole amount is $527.90--

(continued McClain vs. Ellison)= Respondant collected no money due estate other than obtaining credits where amounts appeared in favor of Decedent against others--Citation issued August 12, 1824 served on respondant as why final settlement not made -- on June 16, 1826 he had final settlement with Court, and estate fell in debt to respondant in sum of $82.81 = only account books of decedent were ledger, a day book, a memorandum book - respondant believes last mentioned book has some light on subject of decedent's opinion of situation, and decedent did not consider the leather or hides in process of tanning at time he was in possession of Boyd TanYard as being in partnership with Complainant. Signed Joseph McClain=Witness: Brush & Fitzgerald, Attys. for respondant- John Fisher, J.P. signed that Joseph McClain appeared before him on October 30, 1827.

Wm.Edginton vs. Fox Heirs --

Depositions of witnesses taken in suit of Wm. Edginton, Compt. vs. Arthur Fox's Heirs; Henry Lee and Heirs of George Edginton, Defts. taken before Joseph Darlinton, Master Commissioner in Chancery on September 19, 1826.
Adam Penniwitt of full age on behalf of Compt. saith that in 1793 or 1794 he was called upon by Nathaniel Massie to assist John Beasley to value land now in controversy - that he and Beasley examined the land- Massie being with them - Price he does not now recollect, but thinks it was $40. or $50. per hundred.
Question by Compt. Counsel: Was the land valued by you and Beasley for Mr. Edginton?
Answer: I understood it was and that Edginton took it at our valuation. SIGNED BY Adam Penniwitt.
(ADJOURNED TO TOMORROW MORNING 9 O'CLOCK)
September 20, 1826 - William Leedom of full age on behalf of Compt. saith that during the lifetime of Arhur Fox and Samuel Hopkins they appointed Nathaniel Massie on part of Hopkins and John Beasley on part of Fox to lay off for Fox the part of 1400 acre Survey belonging to Hopkins on Three Mile Creek which tract includes land in controversy -- in the year 1795, as well as deponent can ascertain by it being same year of Wayne's Treaty with Indians - Massie, Beasley, this deponent and several others went on the land - laid off 400 acres being more than the locator's part in quantity - but the part laid off for locator was inferior in quality- they gave him some acres more to make it equal - after it was laid off Beasley and Penniwitt proceeded to value the 195 acres now claimed by Complainant - laid off at beginning corner of original Survey -laid off for Massie who sold it to George Edginton for 35 pounds Virginia Currency which Edginton paid Massie - Sometime after this deponent was in company with Arthur Fox with whom he was well acquainted = Fox informed him that he was indebted to Massie 35 pounds for land on the Miami which Fox sold to same person - Fox had agreed to let Masie have 195 acres for 35 pounds - Fox informed deponent that he was entitled to one equal fourth part of the land.

Question by Complt. Counsel: Did you ever hear Fox acknowledge previous to division that he was indebted to Massie for 35 pounds?

Answer: Yes, I was on trip up the Scioto about 28 or 30 days with Fox and Massie == I heard Fox say he was indebted to Massie for 35 pounds - this was before the division - During that trip Fox offered to sell me any of the land he was entitled from Hopkins, but Massie might make choice of 35 pounds and 100 acres for which he had given bond to James Gutridge.

Question by same: Had you any conversation with Fox on land laid off after Massie had sold the land to Edginton?

Answer: Yes, and Fox seemed well satisfied with division = he was willing 195 acres should go to Massie for 35 pounds he owed Massie.

Question by Andrew Wood (one of Defts.): What year did Fox and Massie hold this conversation? Did Fox give bond to Masie at what time and what was consideration?

Answer: The consideration Fox acknowledged was himself in debt to Massie in year 1793 - also he had given bond to Gutridge for 100 acres = I do not understand Fox gave any bond to Massie.

Anderson's Admr. vs. Ham, etal. -1834

Depositions taken before Joseph Darlinton, Master Commissioner in his office at West Union on December 11, 1834 to be read in evidence on trial pending of Thomas Huston, Admr. of James Anderson, Dec'd.,Compt. & Daniel Anderson and Isaac Ham, Defts. -Jesse Matheny of full age as witness on behalf of Complt. saith that living at Plantation of Dec'd. he inquired of Isaac Ham how it was they held all the old man's property- Ham replied tht he and Daniel Anderson were to pay all Anderson's debts & to maintain him and wife their lifetime & to have all property. Deponent asked Ham if they were to maintain Reese who was deaf and dumb - he said no - she could work and maintain herself.

Question by Compt. Counsel: What property was it- real or personal or both?

Answer: It was both kinds.

Question by same: Is Deft. Daniel Anderson deaf and dumb?

Answer: he is.

Question by Deft. Counsel: Where was this conversation and when?

Answer: It was on the Plantation of James Anderson and shortly after his death - about 3 years ago next Spring.

Question by same: What part of the place was conversation held-was it in the house?
Answer: It was in the edge of orchard near the house-no others present.
Question by same:How did it come you to put such question to him?
Answer:I was living in neighborhood-seeing that Daniel & Ham had all that property I made inquiry-when he gave info-I replied I would not be willing to make such a bargain for fear there were too many debts owed by old man-he said he did think old man was much in debt-thought the larger was owed Huston.
Question by same: Did Huston request you to ask those questions?
Answer: No, he did not.
(Signed Jesse (his x mark) Matheny).
Joseph Freeman, J.P. as witness on behalf of Complt. saith that sometime ago Isaac Ham called on him to go to James Anderson's house to take acknowledgment of deed --Deponent went - James Anderson and his wife executed deed to Daniel Anderson and Isaac Ham-acknowledged same before Freeman -- Deed was for land where Anderson resided-After deed was made-a schedule of property was produced - items not now recalled-but schedule also acknowledged before Freeman--after business was over old Anderson said to Freeman-I do not do this to defraud my creditors for the boys are to pay all my debts.
(Signed Joseph Freeman).
Parker Truitt of full age saith that he was present when deed executed-saw Defts. Daniel Anderson and Isaac Ham execute note payable to James Anderson for sum thinks near $150 of $250. - after papers executed old Anderson said he was better satisfied for bond would maintain him, and note would pay his debts-Joseph Freeman, J.P. was present--Bond was for maintenance of Anderson and his wife.
